Good Shepherd Lutheran Church • Virginia Beach, Va.

Serving as interim pastor at Good Shepherd will be my 5th time in such a role since retirement. While most people will think that it chiefly involves preaching and worship leadership, it also involves anything that a “regularly called” pastor would do: visitation, crisis/emergency calls, regular home and/or homebound and/or hospital visits, committee counsel, church council participation, reports and newsletters, worship/bulletin planning, staff meetings, etc.

As I begin my work with you, I have tried to make some appointment times available so you might consider a stop-by conversation so we can get to know each other. Each of you carries an important story in your own unique biography of your life, work and church experience and sharing such stories is a treasured part of this interim relationship. I invite your conversations with me. (Should some of the time slots not be convenient, please call me to make an appointment more the Holy Spirit abides in and among us. We give thanks that God speaks to each of us, no matter our origins, language, or life path. Filled with the Spirit of truth, we go out from worship to proclaim the saving power of Christ's love and the freedom of God's grace with all the world.

Come to worship wearing red, and be filled with the Spirit.

Pentecost Sunday June 5, 2022

On Pentecost, we celebrate that we have been given an Advocate to accompany us. Poured out in wind and fire, water, wine, and bread,

I so enjoy worship, liturgy and sacraments and I think you must too. After the terrible pandemic and lock-downs, all of us are attempting to assist in “restoring church.” Some are back, others hope to return; so, like the Lenten verse, “return to the Lord Your God for God is gracious and merciful....and calls us to gather as a community “in God’s Name” with the promise that where two or three gather in His Name, He is present. Let us claim that promise. I look forward to our journey together over this time of transition.

As always, we give thanks for your support of our ministries.

Paying for operating costs doesn’t sound exciting—UNTLL we realize our food pantry reaches about 167 people [43 families] a month! Our building is a much-needed gathering place for multiple recovery groups six days a week.

In June, giving statements will be sent. Besides giving in person or through the mail, there are three automated ways to send in your donations:

1. Online giving through our website goodshepherdvb.org
2. Simply Giving—there are applications on the bulletin board or call the church office to begin
3. Text-- dial 1-844-970-2662
